Jägerverein Berching-Dietfurt e.V. takes the protection of your personal data very seriously. We treat your personal data confidentially and in accordance with statutory data protection regulations and this privacy policy. This privacy policy explains what data we collect and what we use it for. It also explains how and for what purpose this is done.

Name and contact details of the data controller

Jägerverein Berching-Dietfurt e.V.
Chairman: Julian Sippl
Oberer Anger 9
92363 Breitenbrunn

Data protection officer

You can contact our data protection officer. Julian Sippl, 92363 Breitenbrunn, julian.sippl@jaegerverein.info

Purposes and legal bases for processing

Your data is collected to manage your membership and fulfil the contractual obligations arising from it, to organise and run events, issue certificates of attendance and achievement, and carry out statistical analysis and improvements.

Your data is processed on the basis of Art. 6(1)(b) GDPR (contract or pre-contractual agreement), Art. 6(1)(f) GDPR (for organisational measures, statistical analysis and optimisation) and Art. 6(1)(a) GDPR (consent).

Jägerverein Berching-Dietfurt e.V. has a legitimate interest in organising membership, the work of its specialist departments (e.g. hunting horn players) and events efficiently and satisfactorily, and in improving them in future.

Recipient

Your personal data will be transmitted to the following recipients or categories of recipients:

- Board, specialist advisers, Landesjagdverband Bayern – Bayerischer Jagdverband e.V., BJV Service GmbH

- Organisers and service providers commissioned by us to run and organise events (data processors). Our service providers have access to your data for these processing activities.

- ERGO Group AG (for legal expenses insurance

- Your data will only be passed on to third parties if we are legally obliged to do so or if you have given your prior consent to the transfer of your data.

Transfer to a third country

There are no plans to transfer your personal data to a third country or an international organisation.

How long personal data is stored

Data will be deleted in accordance with statutory retention periods: after six years for business documents and after ten years for invoicing and membership fee records, unless participant data is still required beyond that period to issue duplicate copies or attendance confirmations.

If participants give us consent to reuse their data for marketing purposes or, for example, to receive email newsletters, their data will be deleted if they withdraw their consent.

Data subject rights

You have the right at any time to obtain information about the source, recipients and purpose of your stored personal data (Art. 15 GDPR). If your personal data is inaccurate, you have the right to request its rectification (Art. 16 GDPR). Within the scope of the applicable legal provisions, you have the right to have the data erased or to restrict its processing (Art. 16, 17 and 21 GDPR). If you have consented to the processing of your data, or if there is a contract for data processing, and the data is processed by automated means, you have the right to data portability (Art. 20 GDPR).

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the competent supervisory authority, the Bavarian Data Protection Authority (BayLDA), Promenade 27, 91522 Ansbach.

Withdrawal of consent

If you have expressly consented to the processing of your personal data by Jägerverein Berching-Dietfurt e.V., you may withdraw your consent at any time. To do so, simply send an informal notification by email to the board. Withdrawal does not affect the lawfulness of data processing carried out before the withdrawal.
